

Ebenezer BAKER —

RMS-789- "The [Miller] house on Thorn Hill was at that time the largest in Clifford, being a two-story frame. Ebenezer Baker, who had named the oldest daughter, Polly, several years before, was the carpenter. After some time. Baker removed to the Lake region in New York."

RMS-795- "Ebenezer Baker was the owner of a store, the first in the township, and Joel Stevens was a clothier, but having his shop on the hill southeast from the mill, where he pressed and dyed cloth as early as 1814 "